Role Name Events Coordinator
Location Crouch End
Start date On going End Date: On going

Purpose The social highlight for lots of people with a learning disability is an evening at the local “learning disability club” organised by well meaning parent where they can drink squash and listen to Abba, Shaking Stevens and the birdie song. A group of people we support are fed up of being type cast, they want to start up their own night where people can experience something a little different.

Suggested Activities You will work with a group of people with learning disability to set up a regular live music night at the Maynard Pub in Crouch End:

- Arrange the line up
- Market the event
- Support and develop new talent
- Create an income to pay the contributors

Support/Training Provided

- Learning disability awareness training
- Use of office facilities
- Advice and guidance

Benefits to you
