

HAIL

LIVING | LEARNING | WORKING | LOVING

Role Name	Film maker
Location	Seven Sisters Road
Start date	March 2010 (other start dates available) End Date: On going
Purpose	People with learning disabilities are often ignored and their stories not heard. Tokenistic gestures are made by professionals to make information accessible to them but this rarely stretches beyond a few images adjacent to patronising text. There is emerging movement in social care to use digital media to support people with learning disabilities to share their stories and for professional to use to communicate information meaningfully. HAIL wants to train and develop people with an interest and passion for making their own films to get the skills they need to work commercially in the social care market.
Suggested Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop a concept, film and edit a 90 second film capturing the story of a person with learning disability• Contribute to a regular digital magazine
Support and Training Provided	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support to develop understanding of the social film market• Learning Disability Qualification
Benefits to you	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Experience of producing films for an emerging social digital media market.• Opportunity to develop social digital media portfolio which could lead to paid work.• Final films will be used on the organisation's new website.
Training	Knowledge and experience of planning, filming and editing short films.
Frequency & Duration	You'll need to produce at least one 90 second film.
Meeting Place	First Floor Cara House 341A Seven Sisters Road (Eade Road) Tottenham, London N15 6RD

